Loncon 3 Announces Instalment Payment Plan

LONDON, UK. 23 March 2013:

As part of its continued support for members, Loncon 3 is introducing an Instalment Plan which will enable fans to spread the cost of an Attending membership over 3 quarterly or 4 monthly instalments. Under the Plan, fans will buy a Supporting membership first (currently £25.00 or US$40.00) and then pay the fee for conversion to Attending membership over 3 quarterly or 4 monthly instalments.

The total charge for the membership will be frozen at the time of signing up to the Plan. (Note also that membership rates in general will increase from 1 May 2013.)

The scheme is available to Adults, Young Adults and Families.

To join the scheme Adults and Young Adults must be or become Supporting members of Loncon 3, including the Adult members and any Young Adult members covered by a Family membership.

Interest in the Instalment Plan has already been strong. Loncon 3 wants to make membership more accessible to science fiction fans from as many countries as possible and from all ages and backgrounds.

The Instalment Plan can be joined either online or by completing and returning an application form by mail or in person to a Loncon 3 agent. Full details are available on the Loncon 3 website at <http://loncon3.org/instalment-membership-plan>
